

Dear Parents and Carers,
As many of you may have heard in the media, the NUT teacher's union are planning a day's strike on Thursday 24th April.
If the strike goes ahead all the teachers at our school who are members of the NUT will be going on strike.

The effect on school will be as follows:

School will closed for children in Ducklings, Ladybirds, Butterflies and Sparrows as their teachers are members of the NUT and will be on strike.

School will be open for children in Penguins and Puffins as their teachers are not members of the NUT and will not be on strike.

All members of our support and office staff will also be in school on that day as they are not members of the NUT.

Thank you

This will obviously affect art club and our parenting course which both run on a Thursday - art club will still take place so children can be brought in for this at 3.05, and Amber (who is running the parenting course) will be in touch with parents who have signed up for the course.

Sad Goodbyes

We were all very sad to say goodbye to our caretaker Robin today, who has nearly completed his computer exams and will be moving onto an exciting new web design career in the near future. He will be very sadly missed by both pupils and staff and we wish him every success in the future. An agency caretaker will be taking over the role temporarily until a new caretaker is appointed.

New entrance after the holidays

After the 2 week break the entrance to our school will be different! The builders will be in the middle of installing our new gate and so, for a short time, everyone entering the school will be using the other front gate (in front of the canteen). A temporary path will be installed over the grass to link this entrance to the main path higher up, and so should cause minimum disruption to us all.

If you live near the school we would be very grateful if you could keep an eye on the school over the holiday period and if you see any trespassers on site please let the local Community Police Officers know: 07717868917
Thank you and I do hope you all enjoy a lovely holiday.
